Transfer photos from your device to your computer - Windows 10

1. Plug device into the computer
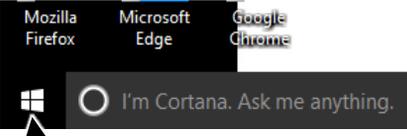

2. For Android devices - on your device, swipe down from the top and select USB option
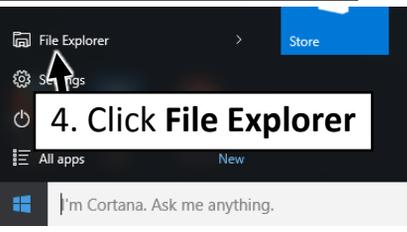

Look for the USB symbol on your computer

On your Windows 10 computer:

At the bottom of screen

3. Click Start Button

4. Click File Explorer

On the left of window

5. Click This PC

6. Click the name of your device

7. If you added a micro SD card, click on Card

7. Or with no card, click on your device name, then Internal Storage if needed

8. Click DCIM

9. Click Camera

10. Click Select All or select individual items hold down Ctrl key on keyboard to select more than one

11. Click Copy

12. Click area on computer where your want to save the pictures
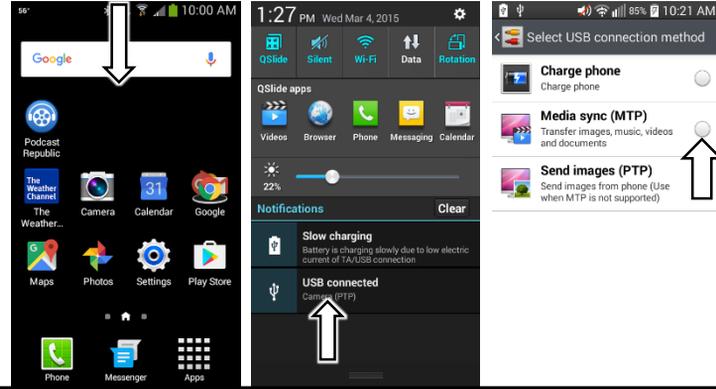

13. Click Paste

Optional: You can create a new folder to place the photos in

Transfer photos from your device to your computer - Windows 7 ect.

1. Plug device into the computer

2. For Android devices - on your device, swipe down from the top and select USB option

Look for the USB symbol on your computer

Select USB connection method

Charge phone — Charge phone

Media sync (MTP) — Transfer images, music, videos and documents

Send images (PTP) — Send images from phone (Use when MTP is not supported)

On your Windows 7 or Vista computer:

3. Click Start Button

4. Click Computer

5. Click on your device's name, then Internal Storage if needed

6. Click on DCIM

7. Click on Camera

8. Click on the folder or photos to select, hold down Ctrl key on keyboard to select more than one, CTRL + A to select all in the folder.

9. Click Organize

10. Click Copy

11. Click area on computer where your want to save the pictures

12. Click Organize

13. Click Paste

Differences in other Computer Versions:

Windows: Your android device will appear in the Computer or My Computer folder Windows XP : Install Windows Media Player 11 to transfer.
  Windows 8: Press the Windows Key on your keyboard, then folders icon on the taskbar at the bottom.

Mac: You will need to install Android File Transfer to complete the USB transfer. http://www.android.com/filetransfer. Your android will appear on the desktop.

CITY OF Midland